Psalm 16

¹ Keep me safe, my God,
for in you I take refuge.

² I say to the LORD, "You are my Lord;
apart from you I have no good thing."

³ I say of the holy people who are in the land,
"They are the noble ones in whom is all my delight."

⁴ Those who run after other gods will suffer more and more.
I will not pour out libations of blood to such gods or take up their names on my lips.

⁵ LORD, you alone are my portion and my cup;
you make my lot secure.

⁶ The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
surely I have a delightful inheritance.

⁷ I will praise the LORD, who counsels me;
even at night my heart instructs me.

⁸ I keep my eyes always on the LORD.
With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

⁹ Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will rest secure,

¹⁰ because you will not abandon me to the realm of the dead,
nor will you let your faithful one see decay.

¹¹ You make known to me the path of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence,
with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

In Summer

Paul Laurence Dunbar - 1872-1906

Oh, summer has clothed the earth in a cloak from the loom of the sun!
And a mantle, too, of the skies' soft blue, and a belt where the rivers run.

And now for the kiss of the wind, And the touch of the air's soft hands,
With the rest from strife and the heat of life, With the freedom of lakes and lands.

I envy the farmer's boy Who sings as he follows the plow;
While the shining green of the young blades lean to the breezes that cool his brow.

He sings to the dewy morn, No thought of another's ear;
But the song he sings is a chant for kings and the whole wide world to hear.

He sings of the joys of life, Of the pleasures of work and rest,
From an o'erfull heart, without aim or art; 'T is a song of the merriest.

O ye who toil in the town, and ye who moil in the mart,
Hear the artless song, and your faith made strong Shall renew your joy of heart.

Oh, poor were the worth of the world If never a song were heard,—
If the sting of grief had no relief, and never a heart were stirred.

So, long as the streams run down, And as long as the robins trill,
Let us taunt old Care with a merry air, and sing in the face of ill.

Enjoy Your Summer!

The parlor is finished at a total cost of $3,600.00. The renovations in the parlor were paid for with an insurance check for $778.00, some money from the maintenance account, some from the memorial account, and donations from church members.

A new window air conditioner was purchased for the parlor.

A new sump pump and dehumidifier for downstairs which cost $653.00.

The refrigerator in the kitchen had coils go bad and also had several freon leaks. They are waiting for the service man to come for the 4th time. Sue will give us a final charge after that.

The entire Church roof is being replaced at no cost to the Church.

Trustees are getting an estimate for trimming the bushes around the Church and some of them need to be removed.

We need to replace stone at the top of the hill and need some outside painting done.

Ken replaced oil and spark plugs in the lawn movers. The elevator was inspected which cost $108.00.
